AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made on the 23rd day of March, 1983, BETWEEN the Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board having its headquarters at Shimla as statutory body incorporated under the provision of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 (Act No. LIV of 1948) through Shri K. C. Mahajan, Chairman, Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board (hereinafter called "the Company" which expression shall, unless the context otherwise require, include his successors in office and assignees) of the one part and the Governor of Himachal Pradesh, through the Secretary (M.P.P. & Power), Government of Himachal Pradesh (hereinafter called "the Governor" which expression shall, unless the context otherwise require, include his successors in office and assignees) of the other part;

WHEREAS for the purpose of the construction of 33/11 K.V. Control Sub-Station at Rajgarh, Tehsil Rajgarh, District Sirmour, (H. P) the company has applied to the Government of Himachal Pradesh for the acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, for the piece of land containing an area of 9 bigha 7 biswa, as per detail noted in the specification below situated in the village Salana, Tehsil Rajgarh, District Sirmour, Himachal Pradesh and more particularly described in the schedule hereto and delineated in the plan hereunto annexed;

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Himachal Pradesh being satisfied by an enquiry held under section 40 of the said Act that the proposed acquisition is needed for the aforesaid purpose and that the said work is likely to prove useful to public, has consented to acquire on behalf of the company, the piece of land hereinbefore described;

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Himachal Pradesh has required the company under the provision of Section 41 of the above-mentioned Act to enter into the Agreement with the Governor hereinafter contained;

Now this indenture witnesseth that it is hereby agreed and declared as follows:—

1. On demand the company shall and will pay to the said Government all and every amount in lieu of the said land tendered, paid or awarded or to be tendered, paid or awarded by the Collector under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, or by court or courts to which an appeal from the award of the said court may be preferred and all costs, charges and expenses of the proceeding in the aforesaid courts, or otherwise incidental of the proposed acquisition or payable in respect thereof under the provision of the said Act.
2. On demand made by the said Collector the obligations of the company under the last preceding clause not being thereby limited, the company shall and will deposit with the said Collector such sum or sums of money as in his discretion, the said Collector may in anticipation estimate to be necessary for the purposes mentioned in the last preceding clause.
3. On payment by the company of all demands under the foregoing first clause, or in the discretion of the said Government (on deposit by the company of all estimated amount as provided in the second clause), but not before possession shall have been taken under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, the Government shall make over possession of the said land to the company and shall execute and do all such acts and deeds as may be necessary and proper for effectually vesting the same in the company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF Shri Kailash Chand Mahajan, Chairman, Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board for and on behalf of the Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board and Shri Kailash Chand Mahajan, Secretary (M.P.P. & Power) to Himachal Pradesh Government, Shimla-2 for and on behalf of the Governor of Himachal Pradesh, have hereunto set their respective hands and seal on the day and year first above written.

TOURISM DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Shimla-2, the 4th February, 1983

No. 6-59/82-TD (Secff).—The Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to order the transfer of management and running of Himachal Bhawan, New Delhi, from the Hospitality Department, H.P. to the H.P. Tourism Development Corporation Ltd. for a period of one year with effect from 1-2-1983 in the first instance on the following conditions:—

1. "The Government (Hospitality Department) shall pay a total sum of Rs. 30.00 lacs for one year to H.P. T.D.C. for this purpose. This amount shall be released in monthly instalments. It shall be the sole responsibility of the Corporation to meet the entire liabilities of pay and allowances of the staff deployed for running the Himachal Bhawan. Besides, the Corporation shall also meet the liability of the maintenance of the building, electricity, water, telephone and POL charges during the entire period of one year".

4. The said land shall be held by the company for the purpose of such 33/11 K.V. Control Sub-Station at Rajgarh as is here-in-before mentioned and without the sanction in writing of the said Government first had and obtained for no other purpose whatsoever.

5. The construction of said 33/11 K. V. Control Sub-Station at Rajgarh shall be completed (and fully equipped in all respects ready for use) within minimum period of 2 years from the date on which possession on the said land shall have been given to the company.

6. Should the said building not be completed (and fully equipped in all respect ready for use) within the period stated in the last preceding clause or within such further period as in its discretion may be prescribed or allowed by the said Government or should the said land at any time thereafter cease for a period of six consecutive months to be held and used or cease to be required for the purpose or purposes provided for in the foregoing fourth clause then and in any such case, the said Government may summarily re-enter upon and take possession of the said land together with all buildings thereafter whether such buildings were erected before or after the transfer of the land to the company, and thereupon the interest of the company in the said land and buildings shall absolutely cease and determine.

7. On taking such possession the said Government may sell or otherwise deal with the said land and buildings as it may think proper:—

- (i) Should the said Government sell the land with the buildings the said Government after deducting the expenses incurred in connection with the said taking of possession and with such sale shall pay the proceeds to the company.

- (ii) Should the said Government decide not to sell the land and buildings the said Government shall retain the said land and buildings thereon in which case the Government shall repay to the company the market value as on the day of re-entry of all the buildings erected by the company and all sums received from the company in respect of all and every amount as provided in the foregoing first clause (less the statutory allowance of 15 per cent and less any amount received on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption) but will not repay any sums paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses of acquisition.

- (iii) Should the said Government decide to sell the buildings only upon such sale, the Governor, shall, after deducting the expenses of taking possession and selling, pay the balance of the proceeds of the sale to the company, together with the sum received from the company in respect of the amount for the land (less the statutory allowance of 15 per cent and less any amount received from the company on account of trees and buildings etc. which are not in existence at the time of resumption), but will not repay any sum paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses of acquisition.

8. Should any dispute or difference arise touching or concerning the subject matter of this Agreement or any covenant clause or thing herein contained, the same shall be referred to the Secretary (Law) to the Government, and opinion and the decision of the aforesaid Secretary (Law) upon such dispute or difference shall be final and conclusive and binding on the parties thereto.

2. The reservation of accommodation shall continue to be with the GAD except for 4 rooms (Room No. 301, 401, 501 & 601) which will be placed at the disposal of the Director of Hospitality/General Manager, Himachal Bhawan for walk-in-guests. The Government servants who are entitled to stay in Himachal Bhawan and happen to visit Delhi from outside the State headquarters and do not possess valid permits shall have the first right of allotment for these four rooms.
3. The rates of accommodation shall continue to be fixed by the G.A.D.
4. The rates of food shall continue to be fixed by the Government of Himachal Pradesh. No subsidy on food shall be re-imbursed to the H.P. T.D.C.
5. The H.P.T.D.C. shall have the option to fix separate rates for commercial catering, Auditorium, Art Gallery and Ice Skating, to balance the shortfall on the catering side. These rates shall be chargeable from non-residents and outside persons. The Government shall have the right to use Auditorium, Conference Hall and other facilities free of cost. For State Corporations, rates as fixed by the Government will be charged.
6. So far as the augmentation and replacement of crockery/cutlery/linen/blankets or similar room services equipment is concerned, the Tourism Corporation shall be responsible to meet this expenditure from their own resources.
7. The H.P.T.D.C. will give an undertaking that the income derived by it from the commercial activities will be adjusted to meet the expenses of H.P.T.D.C. and the surplus, if any, will accrue to the Government.
8. The Director of Hospitality, Himachal Pradesh Government shall continue to inspect and supervise the control of Himachal Bhawan, Delhi.

This issues with the prior concurrence of the Finance Department obtained vide their U.O. No. 5380-Fin (E)/82, dated 22-1-1983.

By order,
K. C. PANDEYA,
Chief Secretary and Secretary (Tourism).

THE ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES (SPECIAL PROVISIONS) ACT, 1981
(Act No. 18 of 1981)

AN

to make certain special provisions by way of amendments to the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 for a temporary period for dealing more effectively with persons indulging in hoarding and blackmarketing of, and profiteering in, essential commodities and with the evil of vicious inflationary prices and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Whereas for ensuring availability of essential commodities at fair prices, it is necessary to curb the hoarding and blackmarketing of, and profiteering in, such commodities;

And Whereas for dealing more effectively with persons indulging in such anti-social activities and the evil of vicious inflationary prices, it is necessary to make certain special provisions by way of amendments to the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955) for a period of five years;

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-Second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, commencement and duration.—(1) This Act may be called the Essential Commodities (Special Provisions) Act, 1981.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint, and different dates may be appointed for different States.

(3) It shall cease to have effect on the expiry of five years from the date of commencement of this Act except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such cesser of operation of this Act, and section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, (10 of 1897) shall apply upon such cesser of operation of this Act as if it had then been repealed by a Central Act.

(4) References in this Act to the commencement of this Act and to the continuance in force of this Act shall be construed in relation to each State as references, respectively, to the coming into force of this Act in that State and to the continuance in force of this Act in that State.

2. Act 10 of 1955 to have effect subject to certain special provisions for a temporary period.—During the continuance in force of this Act, the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in sections 3 to 11:

Provided that the amendments specified in sections 7 to 11 shall not apply to, or in relation to, any offence under the principal Act committed before the commencement of this Act and the provisions of the principal Act shall apply, to, and in relation to, such offence as if those amendments had not been made.

3. Amendment of section 2.—In section 2 of the principal Act,—

(a) clause (ia) shall be re-numbered as clause (iia), and before clause (iia) as so re-numbered, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(ia) “Code” means the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974);” ; and

(b) after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(f) words and expressions used but not defined in this Act and defined in the Code shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Code.”

4. Amendment of section 6A.—In section 6 A of the principal Act, for the proviso to sub-section (2), the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided that in the case of any such essential commodity the retail sale price whereof has been fixed by the Central Government or a State Government under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, the Collector may, for its equitable distribution and availability at fair prices, order the same to be sold through fair price shops at the price so fixed.”

5. Amendment of section 6 C.—In section 6 C of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), for the words “any judicial authority appointed by the State Government concerned and the judicial authority”, the words “the State Government Concerned and the state Government shall be substituted)

(b) in sub-section (2), for the words “such judicial authority”, the words “the State Government” shall be substituted.

6. Amendment of section 6 E.—In section 6 E of the principal Act,—

(a) for the words, figure and letter “the judicial authority appointed under section 6C”, the words, figure and letter “the State Government concerned under section 6C” shall be substituted ;

(b) for the words “any other court, tribunal or authority,” the words “any court, tribunal or other authority” shall be substituted.

7. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the principal Act.—

- (a) in sub-section (1), the proviso to sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) shall be omitted;
- (b) the proviso to sub-section (2) shall be omitted;
- (c) the proviso to sub-section (2A) shall be omitted;
- (d) sub-section (2B) shall be omitted;

8. Amendment of section 8.—To section (8) of the principal Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that where a person has abetted the contravention of any order for the purpose of procuring any essential commodity of the nature mentioned in sub-clause (iv) or sub-clause (v) of clause (a) of section 2 for his own use or for the use of any member of his family or for the use of any person dependent on him, and not for the purpose of carrying on any business or trade in such essential commodity, the court may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 7 and for reasons to be mentioned in the judgment, impose a sentence of fine only.”.

9. Amendment of section 10 A.—In section 10A of the principal Act, after the word “cognizable”, the words “and non-bailable” shall be inserted.

10. Omission of section 12.—Section 12 of the principal Act shall be omitted.

11. Substitution of new sections for section 12A.—For section 12A of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

‘12A. Constitution of Special Courts.—(1) The State Government may, for the purpose of providing speedy trial of the offences under this Act, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute as many Special Courts as may be necessary for such area or areas as may be specified in the notification.

(2) A Special Court shall consist of a single judge who shall be appointed by the High Court upon a request made by the State Government.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, the word “appoint” shall have the meaning given to it in the explanation to section 9 of the Code.

(3) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a judge of a Special Court unless—

(a) he is qualified for appointment as a judge of High Court, or

(b) he has, for a period of not less than one year, been a Sessions Judge or an Additional Sessions Judge.

12. AA. Offences triable by Special Courts.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code,—

(a) all offences under this Act shall be triable only by the Special Court constituted for the area in which the offence has been committed or where there are more Special Courts than one for such area, by such one of them as may be specified in this behalf by the High Court;

(b) where a person accused of or suspected of the commission of an offence under this Act is forwarded to a Magistrate under sub-section (2) or sub-section (2A) of section 167 of the Code, such Magistrate may authorise the detention of such person in such custody as he thinks fit for a period not exceeding fifteen days in the whole where such magistrate is a Judicial Magistrate and seven days in the whole where such Magistrate is an Executive Magistrate:

Provided that where such Magistrate considers—

(i) when such person is forwarded to him as aforesaid; or

(ii) upon or at any time before the expiry of the period of detention authorised by him; that the detention of such person is unnecessary, he may, if he is satisfied that the case falls under the proviso to section 8, order the release of such person on bail and if he is not so satisfied, he shall order such person to be forwarded to the Special Court having jurisdiction;

(c) the Special Court may, subject to the provisions of clause (d) of this sub-section, exercise, in relation to the person forwarded to it under clause (b) the same power which a Magistrate having jurisdiction to try a case may exercise under section 167 of the Code in relation to an accused person in such case who has been forwarded to him under that section:

(d) save as aforesaid no person accused of or suspected of the commission of an offence under this Act shall be released on bail by any court other than a Special Court or the High Court:

Provided that a Special Court shall not release any such person on bail—

(i) without giving the prosecution an opportunity to oppose the application for such release unless the Special Court, for reasons to be recorded in writing, is of opinion that it is not practicable to give such opportunity; and

(ii) where the prosecution opposes the application, if the Special Court is satisfied that there appear reasonable grounds for believing that he has been guilty of the offence concerned:

Provided further that the Special Court may direct that any such person may be released on bail if he is under the age of sixteen years or is a woman or is a sick or infirm person, or if the Special Court is satisfied that it is just and proper so to do for any other special reason to be recorded in writing;

(e) a Special Court may, upon a perusal of police report of the facts constituting an offence under this Act take cognizance of that offence without the accused being committed to it for trial;

(f) all offences under this Act shall be tried in a summary way and the provisions of section 262 to 265 (both inclusive) of the Code shall, as far as may be, apply to such trial:

Provided that in the case of any conviction in a summary trial under this section, it shall be lawful for the Special Court to pass a sentence of imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

(2) When trying an offence under this Act, a Special Court may also try an offence other than an offence under this Act, with which the accused may, under the Code, be charged at the same trial:

Provided that such other offence is, under any other law for the time being in force, triable in a summary way:

Provided further that in the case of any conviction for such other offence in such trial, it shall not be lawful for the Special Court to pass a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding the term provided for conviction in a summary trial under such other law.

(3) A Special Court may, with a view to obtaining the evidence of any person suspected to have been directly or indirectly concerned in, or privy to, an offence under this Act, tender a pardon to such person on condition of his making a full and true disclosure of the whole circumstances within his knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person concerned whether as principal or abettor in the commission thereof and any pardon so tendered shall, for the purposes of section 308 of the Code, be deemed to have been tendered under section 307 thereof.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect the special powers of the High Court regarding bail under section 439 of the Code and the High Court may, exercise such powers including the power under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of that section as if the reference to "Magistrate" in that section included also a reference to a "Special Court" constituted under section 12 A.

12 AB. Appeal and revision.—The High Court may exercise, so far as may be applicable, all the powers conferred by Chapters XXIX and XXX of the Code on a High Court, as if a Special Court within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court were a Court of Sessions trying cases within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court.

12 AC. Application of Code to proceedings before a Special Court.—Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code (including the provisions as to bail and bonds) shall apply to the proceedings before a Special Court and for the purposes of the said provisions, the Special Court shall be deemed to be a Court of Sessions and the person conducting a prosecution before a Special Court, shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor.

further to amend the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Income Tax (Amendment) Act, 1981.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

2. Amendment of section 269 A.—In section 269A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—

(a) in clause (a),—

(i) in the opening portion, for the words: “apparent consideration”, in relation to any immovable property transferred, means,—, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“apparent consideration”,—

(1) in relation to any immovable property transferred, being immovable property of the nature referred to in sub-clause (i) of clause (e) means,—;

(ii) after sub-section (ii) the following shall be inserted, namely:—

“(iii) if the transfer is by way of lease,—

(A) in a case where the consideration for the transfer consists of premium only, the amount of premium as specified in the instrument of transfer;

(B) in a case where the consideration for the transfer consists of rent only, the aggregate of the moneys (if any) payable by way of rent and the amounts for the service or things forming part of or constituting the rent, as specified in the instrument of transfer;

(C) in a case where the consideration for the transfer consists of premium and rent, the aggregate of the amount of the premium, the moneys (if any) payable by way of rent and the amounts for the service or things forming, part of or constituting the rent, as specified in the instrument of transfer, and where the whole or any part of the consideration for such transfer is payable on any date or dates falling after the date of such transfer the value of the consideration payable after such date shall be deemed to be the discounted value of such consideration, as on the date of such transfer, determined by adopting the rate of interest at eight per cent, per annum;

(2) in relation to any immovable property transferred, being immovable property of the nature referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (e), means—

(i) in a case where the consideration for the transfer consists of a sum of money only, such sum;

(ii) in a case where the consideration for the transfer consists of a thing or things only, the price that such thing or things would ordinarily fetch on sale in the open market on the date of the transfer;

(iii) in a case where the consideration for the transfer consists of a thing or things and a sum of money, the aggregate of the price that such thing or things would ordinarily fetch on sale in the open market on the date of the transfer and such sum, and whereas the whole or any part of the consideration for such transfer is payable on any date or dates falling after the date of such transfer, the value of the consideration payable after such date shall be deemed to be the discounted value of such consideration, as on the date of such transfer, determined by adopting the rate of interest at eight per cent per annum;";

(b) for clause (d), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(d) “fair market value”,—

(i) in relation to any immovable property transferred by way of sale or exchange, being immovable property of the nature referred to in sub-clause (i) of clause (e), means the price that the immovable property would ordinarily fetch on sale in the open market on the date of execution of the instrument of transfer of such property;

(ii) in relation to any immovable property transferred by way of lease, being immovable property of the nature referred to in sub-clause (i) of clause (e), means the premium that such transfer would ordinarily fetch in the open market on the date of execution of the instrument of transfer of such property, if the consideration for such transfer had been by way of premium only;

(iii) in relation to any immovable property transferred, being immovable property of the nature referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (e), means the consideration in the form of money that such transfer would ordinarily fetch in the open market on the date of the transfer, if such transfer had been made only for consideration in money;";

(c) in clause (e),—

(i) in the opening portion, for the words “immovable property” means any land or any building”, the following shall be substituted namely:—

““immovable property” means,—

(i) any land or any building”;

(ii) in the Explanation, for the words “this clause”, the words “this sub-clause” shall be substituted;

“(ii) any rights of the nature referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 269 AB);”;

(d) for clause (f), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(f) “instrument of transfer” means the instrument of transfer registered under the Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908) or, as the case may be, the statement registered under section 269AB with the competent authority;”;

(e) for clause (h), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

(i) in relation to any immovable property referred to in sub-clause (i) of clause (e), means transfer of such property by way of sale or exchange or lease for a term of not less than twelve years, and includes allowing the possession of such property to be taken or retained in part performance of a contract of the nature referred to in section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act, 1982 (4 of 1982).

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-clause, a lease which provides for the extension of the term thereof by a further term or terms shall be deemed to be a lease for a term of not less than twelve years if the aggregate of the term for which such lease has been granted and the further term or terms for which it can be so extended is not less than twelve years;

(ii) in relation to any immovable property of the nature referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (e), means the doing of anything (whether by way of transfer of shares in a co-operative society or company or by way of any agreement or arrangement or in any other manner whatsoever) which has the effect of transferring, or enabling the enjoyment of, such property.”

3. Insertion of new section 269AB.—After section 269A of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“269AB. Registration of certain transactions.— (1) The following transactions, that is to say,—

(a) every transaction involving the allowing of the possession of any immovable property to be taken or retained in part performance of a contract of the nature referred to in section 53A of the Transfer of Property Act, 1862 (4 of 1882), and

(b) every transaction (whether by way of becoming a member of, or acquiring shares in, a co-operative society, company or other association of persons or by of any agreement or any arrangement of whatever nature) whereby a person acquires any rights in or with respect to any building or part of a building (whether or not including any machinery, plant, furniture, fittings or other things therein) which has been constructed or which is to be constructed [not being a transaction by way of sale, exchange or lease of such building or part of a building which is required to be registered under the Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908)], shall be reduced to writing in the form of a statement by each of the parties to such transaction or by any of the parties to such transaction acting on behalf of himself and on behalf of the other parties.

(2) Every statement in respect of a transaction referred to in sub-section (1) shall—

- (a) be in the prescribed form;
- (b) set forth such particulars as may be prescribed; and
- (c) be verified in the prescribed manner.

and registered with the competent authority, in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed, by each of the parties to such transaction or by any of the parties to such transaction acting on behalf of himself and on behalf of the other parties.”.

4. Amendment of section 269 B.—In section 269B of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), the following Explanation shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, immovable property, being rights of the nature referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 269 AB in, or with respect to, any building or part of a building which has been constructed or which is to be constructed shall be deemed to be situate at the place where the building has been constructed or is to be constructed.”.

5. Amendment of section 269 D.—In section 269D of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), in the first proviso, after the words and figures “registered under the Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908)”, the words, figures and letters “or, as the case may be, section 269AB” shall be inserted;

(b) in sub-section (2), the following Explanation shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

Explanation.—The provisions of the Explanation to sub-section (2) of section 269 B shall apply for the purposes of this sub-section as they apply for the purposes of that sub-section.”

6. Amendment of section 269 F.—In section 269 F of the principal Act, in sub-section (9),—

(a) for the words “date of the execution of the instrument of transfer”, the words, figures and letters “date of the execution of the instrument of transfer or where such property is of the nature referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (e) of section 269 A on the date of the transfer” shall be substituted;

(b) for the words “on sale in the open market on the date of the conclusion of the agreement to sell the property”, the words “on such transfer in the open market on the date of the conclusion of the agreement to transfer the property” shall be substituted.

7. Amendment of section 269 I.—In section 269 I of the principal Act, after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4) or any other law or any instrument or any agreement for the time being in force, where an order for acquisition of any immovable property, being rights of the nature referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 269 AB, in or with respect to any building or part of a building which has been constructed or which is to be constructed, has become final, then, such order shall, by its own force, have the effect of:—

(a) vesting such rights in the Central Government, and

(b) placing the Central Government in the same position in relation to such rights as the person in whom such rights would have continued to vest if such order had not become final, and the competent authority may issue such directions as he may deem fit to any person concerned for taking the necessary steps for compliance with the provisions of clauses (c) and (b).

(6) In the case of any immovable property, being rights of the nature referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 269 AB, in or with respect to any building or part of a building, the provisions of sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall have effect as if the references to immovable property therein were a reference to such building or, as the case may be, part of such building.”

8. Amendment of section 269 J.—In section 269 J of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), the following proviso shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Provided that in a case where, under the agreement between the parties concerned, the whole or any part of the consideration for the transfer of such immovable property is payable on any date or dates falling the date on which such property is acquired, the compensation payable by the Central Government shall be the aggregate of the following amounts, namely:—

(i) an amount equal to fifteen per cent of the apparent consideration;

(ii) the amount, if any, that has become payable in accordance with such agreement on or before the date on which such property is acquired under this Chapter; and

(iii) the amount payable after the date on which such property is acquired under this Chapter.”

9. Amendment of section 269 K.—In section 269 K of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), in the proviso, for the words “provided that” the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided that in a case falling under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 269 J, the amounts referred to in clause (i) and clause (ii) of that proviso shall be tendered to the person or persons entitled thereto, as soon as may be, after the property becomes vested in the Central Government under section 269 I, and the amount referred to in clause (iii) of the said proviso shall be tendered on the date on which it would be payable in accordance with the agreement between the parties concerned, and where such amount is payable in instalments on different dates, then in such instalments on those dates:

Provided further that”.

10. Insertion of new section 276 A A.—After section 276 A of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“276 A A. Failure to comply with the provisions of section 269 AB or section 269 I.—Whoever, without reasonable cause or excuse, fails to comply with the provisions of section 269 AB or with any direction issued under sub-section (5) of section 269 I shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine:

Provided that in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be recorded in the judgement of the court such imprisonment shall not be for less than six months”.
